Certificate of Organization

Sometimes called an articles of organization, these are the documents filed with the state to formally create an LLC. In the eyes of the law, your LLC doesn't exist unless they've been filed with the proper government agency (most of the time, it's the Secretary of State's office).

What we've done for you

- ☒ We've filed your company's Certificate of Organization with the state of Iowa and have enclosed a copy for your reference.

What you need to do

- ☐ Review the Certificate of Organization document in this packet to make sure all of your business info is correct.

Good to know

- Your company's Certificate of Organization may show an ID number. This is not your Federal Employer Identification Number (EIN). The Secretary of State uses it for record keeping purposes only.

2.

Operating Agreement

An operating agreement describes your company's ownership structure and outlines how the company will be run and managed.

What we've done for you

- ☒ We've created one for your business and have included a copy in your packet for reference.

What you need to do

- ☐ Review the operating agreement to make sure the information is correct.
- ☐ If members (that's you and your business partners) are contributing cash to the company, write the amount of the contribution in Exhibit A of the Agreement. A member can contribute more than cash—it can be property, equipment, and even time or labor. We recommend speaking with an attorney to help determine the value of such thing.
- ☐ Have each member of the LLC sign the agreement.
- ☐ Give each member a photocopy of the signed agreement.
- ☐ If this all sounds a bit overwhelming, we can connect you with an independent attorney who knows your state's laws to guide you through it — just give us a call at (855) 787-1957.

Good to know

- Operating agreements can be amended at any time by the company's members or managers.

Questions or changes? Call us at (855) 787-1957 (Mon-Fri 5 a.m. to 7 p.m. PT and Sat 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. PT) or email us at bzsupport@legalzoom.com. We're happy to help.

Registered Agent

In Iowa, a registered agent must be named in a company's formation document. This is a person or another company authorized to receive service of process (in the event of a lawsuit) and other important legal documents and notices on behalf of a business. Most states use the term registered agent, but some states use the term resident agent, statutory agent, or agent for service of process (confusing, isn't it?).

What we've done for you

- ☒ Our company that provides registered agent services (United States Corporation Agents, Inc.) is ready to receive and deliver important documents for your business.

What you need to do

- ☐ Review any documents that are uploaded to the Registered Agent portal in your LegalZoom account or mailed to you from us. (We will email you each time a document is uploaded to the Registered Agent portal.)
- ☐ If you ever change your email or business address, please be sure to let us know.

Good to know

- All court documents, legal correspondence, and state notices that we receive on your behalf will be uploaded to your Registered Agent portal throughout the year. If you're ever served court documents, we'll notify you right away.
- Junk and marketing mail will be filtered so you don't need to worry about getting spammed.
- Your Registered Agent subscription will renew automatically on the anniversary date of your company's formation.

Questions or changes? Call us at (855) 787-1957 (Mon-Fri 5 a.m. to 7 p.m. PT and Sat 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. PT) or email us at bzsupport@legalzoom.com. We're happy to help.

Banking Authorization Letter

When you formed your LLC with us, you identified people within your company who are authorized to open a bank account for your business. This letter is proof of that and is often required by banks.

What we've done for you

- ☒ We created a letter signed by the organizer that identifies who can open a business bank account.

What you need to do

- ☐ Have the member(s) or manager(s) listed on the letter sign where indicated.
- ☐ Take this letter, a copy of your articles, your EIN, and a copy of your signed operating agreement (if you have one) to your bank to open a business bank account.

Questions or changes? Call us at (855) 787-1957
(Mon-Fri 5 a.m. to 7 p.m. PT and Sat 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. PT) or email us at bzsupport@legalzoom.com. We're happy to help.

State Compliance Filings

To maintain your company's good standing status with the state, most states require that you file an annual or biennial report with the state filing office. This report typically lists basic company information, which may include the registered agent name and address, officer or manager names and addresses, and the type of business. Don't forget to file all required state tax returns and make your tax payment on time!

What we've done for you

- ☒ We have activated your State Compliance Filings Package benefits, accessed through your LegalZoom account portal. These include the following:
 - Compliance Calendar: We will notify you when important compliance dates are approaching so you will always know when you have to file required paperwork.
 - Annual Reports: We will help you create and file your Biennial Report, based on the company information you provide us each year.
 - Guaranteed Filings: We guarantee that your annual reports will be filed on time.*

What you need to do

- ☐ *We do everything we can to make sure everything is filed on time but, remember, you are responsible for paying any government filing fees. Heads up! You'll also need to complete our Annual Reports questionnaire at least 15 business days before the filing due date. We'll email to remind you (up to 3 times, and then we'll stop bugging you). If we are unable to complete it because of a mistake or inaction on your part, because you did not pay the government filing fees, or because your entity is not in good standing, this guarantee will not apply.

Questions or changes? Call us at (855) 787-1957 (Mon-Fri 5 a.m. to 7 p.m. PT and Sat 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. PT) or email us at bzsupport@legalzoom.com. We're happy to help.
